

Young Ambassadors

Bronze Young Ambassador Person Specification 2014–2015

Bronze Young Ambassadors are primary school aged children. It is a development opportunity for the best Sports Leaders, Playground Leaders or School Sport Organising Crew.

The following criteria should be used as a guide to the Bronze Young Ambassador role.

---

Area of work

- Bronze Young Ambassadors should work in their school supporting the development of PE and school sport, but linking in with the local secondary school.

Experience

- The Bronze Young Ambassadors should have been an excellent volunteer in a school sport environment.
- Ideally to have been an effective member of a School Sport Organising Crew, or equivalent e.g. Sports Council.

Person profile

- Ideally Year 5 or 6.
- To have demonstrated the ability to:
  - lead their peers;
  - be a role model in the school and community; and
  - influence and inspire other young people.

Training opportunity

- Bronze Young Ambassadors can be trained locally using Youth Sport Trust resources, by Platinum or Gold Young Ambassadors, School Games Organisers, or school teachers.

Training content

- The content will focus on what a Young Ambassador is, what they do, and the skills required to be effective.

Roles and responsibilities

- To increase participation in PE, and promote healthy lifestyles in their school.
- To promote the positive values of sport.
- To be an ambassador and role model, advocating PE and school sport.
- To be the young people's voice on PE and school sport in their school.

Tasks

- Set up a School Sport Organising Crew.
- Create a PE and school sport notice board.
- Set up a new sports club.
- Run a school sport competition.
- Make a presentation on sporting opportunities in school.